It is of the greatest importance to us that you return this report or telephone our Service Manager, if the information contains any inaccuracy or seems too incomplete to establish the credit risk or to serve your purpose, because a second investigation in such cases is the only way in which we can detect the occasional shortcomings of a responsible reporter and keep him constantly on the alert. The mere reading of reports is no verification of their contents, and would entail a prohibitive cost, of little practical value, while seriously retarding deliveries.
